JP Morgan Chase Bank
1 Chase Manhattan, New York, NY 10005, USA BIC/SWIFT Code: CHASUS33 ABA
Routing Number: 021000021

Please note:

Some International wires require an IBAN number, but bank accounts in USA do not have an IBAN. However, you need to provide ABA Routing Number and your Account Number along with Swift Code of JPMorgan Chase Bank NA to initiate International wire transfer.

When Chase Bank accepts a wire transfer, it will deduct a $15 US fee. This is a fee associated with Chase Bank and the bank you are transferring the money from will not know how much the fee is to receive. So, if you do choose to transfer money from your bank to ours, along with any associated fees that your bank has, please add an additional $15 to cover the amount for the wire transfer so that we can ensure that we receive the full amount. You are responsible for any additional fees (i.e. transfer and/or exchange fees) that the bank may charge.

TransferWise (for transferring from currencies other than USD)

TransferWise offers a safe, easy, and much less expensive way (compared to standard banks) to exchange currencies and send transfers. Note that if you have a USD bank account, Transferwise is not available as an option to transfer money. You can learn more about their process here: www.transferwise.com

When you are ready to make a transfer, and if you do not already have a Transferwise account, you will need to register. Click "Sign Up" in the upper right-hand corner of the homepage. Fill out your details, and you'll get started making a payment right away.

Ensure that when inputting the "Recipient" information you do not need to have the box checked indicating that you know the bank information.

1) Send the money to "Catherine Littman" 2) The email address is cat@catkabira.com

Please make sure that if it asks you for details regarding what the transfer is for, you put "your name + the amount" so we can identify your transfer with you!

When using TransferWise, please make sure that:

You enter the exact payment due in the 'Catherine Littman Receives' space, so we receive the exact amount on our end. The amount that comes out of your account will be automatically converted for you.

Again, please note that TransferWise serves to convert foreign currency into USD! It is not an option for anyone wishing to send USD to USD directly.
